

Democratic Party of Illinois

Become a DPI Local Ambassador!

DPI Local Ambassadors are local voices who are passionate about Democratic values and are willing to speak publicly about the news of the day, either online or in-person.

Local Ambassadors can be anyone— activists, local party leaders, union leaders, service providers, or simply committed Democratic voters.

Local Ambassadors will receive training on communications best practices, messaging opportunities, and public speaking preparation.

Write letters to editors or op-eds

Post on social media

Attend and/or speak at a local press conference

Speak to reporters

We need your voice to cut through the noise and talk about what Democrats have delivered for the people of Illinois!

Interested? Visit ildems.com/ambassadors to learn more!

Paid for by the Democratic Party of Illinois, www.ildems.com
Not Authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.