How do I vote if I am in a healthcare facility?	Any qualified voter that has been admitted to a healthcare facility (hospital, nursing home, or rehabilitation center) not more than 14 days before the election or, if released, is expected to be homebound on the day of the election and unable to travel to the polling place, shall be entitled to personal delivery of an emergency ballot.

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Voter must obtain an Application for Physically Incapacitated Elector Ballot for Qualified Voter Admitted to Hospital, Nursing Home, or Rehabilitation Center. The application can be obtained from the election authority (county clerk or board of election commissioners, depending on where the voter is registered to vote). 2. Voter must complete their application and their physician must complete and sign the Certificate of Attending Physician section of the application. 3. After the form is completed and signed by the voter and their physician, a registered voter from the voter's precinct or any legal relative can then hand deliver the application to the election authority's office. 4. After signing an affidavit, the precinct voter or legal relative may personally hand deliver the ballot to the voter at the healthcare facility they have been admitted to. 5. Once the voter receives the ballot, they will vote the ballot in secret and complete the certification on the ballot return envelope. 6. After depositing their voted ballot in the return envelope, the voter will securely seal the envelope and give the envelope to the precinct voter or to the legal relative. The ballot must be delivered back to the election authority before 7:00 p.m. on Election Day.⁴ Secured Drop-Box Locations: Check here for drop-box locations.
How can I “cure” any issues with my ballot?	If a signature is rejected, voters must be notified before the close of the provisional counting period and have until 14 days after the election to appear before election officials and present evidence in support of their ballot.⁵

What if I requested a Vote-by-Mail ballot but I want to vote in person on Election Day?	If you have already received your mail ballot, take it with you to an early voting site or your polling place on Election Day and surrender it to an election judge. Your mail ballot will be voided, and you will receive a regular ballot. If you have not yet received your mail ballot, you will be asked to sign an affidavit certifying you have not received your ballot. You will then be issued a regular ballot. If you received your mail ballot but lost it, you may sign an affidavit certifying you have not yet voted in this election. You will then be issued a provisional ballot. If your mail ballot arrives after you have voted but on or before Election Day, you must discard the mail ballot. Do not attempt to vote your mail ballot after you have voted in person. Doing so is a Class 3 felony. (And because voting systems will not allow more than one vote per voter, your mail ballot will be rejected.)
